"At Home with Sheri and Leo"
It was love at first sight for 29-year-old Sheri Casey and 24-year-old Leo Jordan when they met at the "Sports Person of the Year" TV awards last year. She's a popular TV newsreader and he's an international football star. They're an unusual couple. Sheri was born in Dublin, Ireland and has got a first class degree in politics from Oxford University. Leo plays football for England, and he left school at sixteen. Leo lives in a penthouse flat in Manchester, and Sheri lives in an 18th century house in London. They're both very busy, and they only meet two days a week. "It's difficult," says Sheri, "because I work in the evenings in london, and Leo trains in the mornings in Manchester. I fly to Manchester, or Leo drives to London in his Ferrari on Saturday night, and then we both go back to work on Tuesday morning".
Leo's hobby is cooking. "My father is a chef," he says, "And my mother's a great cook too." Sheri likes reading biographies of famous people, and she is a keen chess player, but she doesn't like cooking. She watches every news programme on TV, but Leo only watches sports programmes. They eat at home on Sundays and Mondays. "I am in restaurants and hotels every day of the week," she says, "I go to a lot of charity dinners. Leo cooks a romantic dinner with wine and candies on Sundays, but I'm happy with a sandwich and a nice hot cup of tea in front of the telly."

Промежуточный тест 1
1. Read about Tomas who comes from Vienna.
I'm Tomas and I live in Vienna with my parents and my sisters. I'm the youngest in my family. I turned 13 last month. My sisters are Martina, 16, and Betta, 19. Betta's very serious and she always tells me what to do, I guess because she's the oldest. I go to a nice school not too far from our home and I really enjoy it. I have a lot of friends there and I enjoy studying. My best subject is Geography, probably because it's the easiest too! My most difficult subject is Math - I'm terrible and I don't like my teacher. I love playing sports, especially basketball. I'm the tallest player on the school team and I usually play really well. It's the happiest part of my day. My coach says that one day I could play professional basketball! On the weekend I spend a lot of time with my friends Ralf and Kurt. We do everything together and they are the most important people in my life, apart from my family of course!

Are the following sentences True or False?
1. Tomas is older than Martina.
2. Betta is the oldest.
3. Geography is the easiest subject.
4. English is more difficult than Math.
5. Tomas is the tallest on the team.
6. Kurt is more important than Betta.
2. Write 8positive and 8 negative sentences about youself or someone you know. Use am, is, are, am not, isn’t, aren’t.

I don't have a job now, but normally I clean shop windows. I am not married but I live with my very beautiful girlfriend, Maria, in a nice house in Branton. We don't have any children...maybe next year.
My girlfriend is an actress, but she isn't very famous. She acts in a small theatre in our town. At the weekend, we like to go swimming in a big lake near our house.
I normally get up at eight o'clock, but on Thursday I get up at six o'clock because that is the day when I go running in the park.

Indian & Bangladeshi Restaurant

A I was very happy to receive an invitation to the new Indian restaurant last week, so I called my dear friend Louis and we went to the Neel Akash, which means 'blue sky', to see what all the fuss was about.

B The Neel Akash is near the town square at the end of Sussex Street, opposite the library. It is very central, so we walked there, but it is easy to get to from the train and bus stations and it also has its own car park.

C The restaurant has only been open for two weeks, so it still feels very new. The décor is traditional with a lot of wood and dark reds and greens. The lighting isn't too bright and the atmosphere is warm and friendly. I particularly liked the flowers and candles on all the tables. There were already a lot of people there, so it was lively but not too noisy.

D When we arrived, a pleasant young waiter showed us to our table which was in the window overlooking the garden. As soon as we sat down, another waiter brought the menu and took our drinks order. He explained the different dishes to us, recommended the specialities of the restaurant and then gave us some time to make our choices.
E I love Indian food and wanted to taste everything, but in the end I ordered a selection of starters for us to share. We had shami kebab – spiced lamb, aloo chat – spicy potatoes, and egg akuri which is egg cooked with onions and served with bread. For my main course I had chicken tikka korma which is a mild chicken cooked in a cream sauce. I don't like very spicy food so that was hot enough for me. This came with delicious boiled rice and bread. My friend ordered a very spicy fish curry which he had with a side dish of raita which is yoghourt with cucumber. Everything looked perfect and tasted absolutely delicious.
F When the bill came we were pleasantly surprised as it was very reasonable. We paid £20 per person which included drinks and a tip. For a cheaper option, you can have a buffet lunch during the week which costs £7.95 and you can eat as much as you like for that.

Si-Woo, South Korea
I LEFT UNIVERSITY two years ago with a degree in Media Studies and I applied for jobs in the film industry – hundreds of jobs! – but there's so much competition, I didn't get one! Not even an interview! Everyone asked for experience, but how can you get work experience if nobody offers you a job? In the end, I agreed to spend time at a public relations company without pay. At first, I only did boring jobs like making coffee, but I'm beginning to do more interesting things now. We're working with a film company to promote their new film. I'm helping to organize some events with the actors. It's good to get new skills, but I'm not even getting the minimum wage. I want to learn and earn – so I'm going to an interview for a properly paid job next week. Wish me luck!

Talita, Uruguay
BEFORE, I DIDN'T WORK MUCH. Because I had children, I had a parttime job for a while, but a couple of times my children were sick, so I took time off, and the second time my boss said don't come back. Later I also cared for my dad. I was happy to do it, but it's a full-time job without pay! Then a few years ago, the government started providing support for people like me. I got some training and now I work in a centre that teaches parents new skills and provides free day care for kids. I love my work and seeing the kids grow up. Obviously, they can be difficult sometimes, but if I'm having a bad day, I think of how I'm helping so many other parents and I'm grateful for my life now.

Jada, UK
I'M STUDYING PART-TIME here and working as a delivery driver at the same time. I can borrow money to pay for my course, but it's not enough. I started doing deliveries by bike through an app, but thankfully, I have a van now! I work for a company on a flexible contract. It means the hours change each week and sometimes you hardly earn anything because you don't get enough work – and then if you're late with a delivery, you can lose money too. It depends a lot on the manager. Luckily, I get on with mine, so it's OK for me. During the holidays, I have lots of hours, but then if I'm working on a project or an essay, I tell her I can't work and it's fine. So it suits me and I'm really enjoying getting to know Manchester!

5. Answer the following questions in 1-2 sentences:

1. Why did Si-Woo struggle to find a job in the film industry?
2. How did Talita's life change after receiving government support?
3. What are the advantages and disadvantages of Jada's delivery job?

6. Match the words/phrases from the text (A) with their correct meanings (B):
"minimum wage"
"flexible contract"
"public relations"
"day care"
B
a) A job agreement with changing hours
b) The lowest legal salary for workers
c) Supervised care for children while parents work
d) Managing a company's public image

7. Choose one of the three people (Si-Woo, Talita, or Jada) and write a 5-sentence response:
If you were in their situation, would you make the same choices? Why/why not?
What challenges would you find most difficult in their job?

Промежуточный тест 5
1. Read about Martin, an English teenager, who is going to school in Australia.
School in Australia is different from school in the UK. When I went to school in England, we had to wear a school uniform, but here we don't have to wear one. In Australia, if you don't pass your exams, you have to repeat the whole year again, whereas in England, you don't. The Australian way makes you work harder!
The school year is different too. Here, there are four terms per year as in the UK, but the school year starts in early January or February and ends in December. In the UK, the school year starts in September and finishes in the middle of July. My school hours have also changed – we start at 8 o'clock and finish at 2 o'clock, whereas in England we used to start later, at 8.45, and finish at 3.30.
My parents used to complain that we had too much stress and worry at school. Now they say they are happy with the better mix between schoolwork and free-time.
The relationship between students is great here – I think it's because the class sizes are smaller than in England. The school has a good atmosphere and there's no violence or bullying.
The amount of homework is the same as I used to have in England, but the approach is different – here they teach you to be independent and to look for information by yourself, on the internet, for example, but also to work with other students to build good relationships. In both countries the attitude to homework is the same – you mustn't copy another person's work and pretend that it is your own.
The subjects we study are very similar. We have English, Maths, Art subjects and Languages, Studies of Society and the Environment (which we didn't have in the UK), Information Technology and Personal Development, Health and Physical education.
Most students stay at school until year 12, when they are 17 or 18 years old. That's when students take their final exams to go to university or for vocational training.
If I pass my finals and get the grades I want, I'll go to university in Sydney. The career advisor said that I could take a year out after leaving school, but I prefer to continue studying. If I work hard enough on my course, I'll be able to get a good job when I graduate.

2. Which school is it about?
1. Students have to wear uniform

Sixteen - What now?
You're 16 and finally you can leave school! By now, you're probably sick of teachers, desks, tests and exams. But don't just run for the exit. You need to think carefully about what to do next. If you want a professional career, you will need to go to university and get a degree. To do that, you need to stay at high school for another two years. But you needn't stay at the same place. There are several options in the district of Northacre.
St. Leopold's School has the best pass rate of all the high schools in the district. It offers a wide range of subjects in the humanities and sciences. St Leopold's is, of course, a private school, so may be too expensive for you. But don't worry, there are several other options if you want to follow the academic route. Knowle Grammar School is a state school, so there are no fees, and it has excellent tuition and facilities. It is a boys'school from the ages of 11-16, but from 16-18 it is co-educational. But it is selective, so you'll have to pass an exam to get in. If you're interested in going into Business, check out Wyle River Academy. This school specialises in subjects like Business Studies, Management and Economics. If you prefer the arts, look at the courses on offer at Northacre College. Here you can study woodwork, art, textiles and much more. Northacre College also offers a wide range of vocational qualifications. You can do a 1-year certificate or a 2-year diploma in subjects like electrics, plumbing, roofing and hairdressing. If you'd prefer to work outdoors, look at Milldown College, where there are courses in Farm Mechanics, Land Management, Animal Management and much more. A final option is to get an apprenticeship with a local or national company. You will get on-the-job training, gain certificates or diplomas and start earning straight away. But be warned - places are limited! Find out more at the Jobs Fair on 26th May at Northacre College.
